

Access Control

As individuals require single source for all their security needs, demand and planned growth has led Eagle to provide a broader range of security solutions. A number of highly sophisticated CCTV and colour video entry systems have been supplied. This gives the company or individual very cost effective state of the art technology with support and advice from the one company.