

Roller Shutters

Eagle Automation is pleased to announce a new range of Roller Shutters exclusively manufactured to our requirements. Eagle are able to offer a comprehensive range with special design considerations to make this not only one of the quietest but also robust products on the market. Available in solid or mesh they are easily automated and suited not only for underground car parks but shops, buildings etc.